

Marie Davis appointed to Professional Standards Board

Marie Davis BA, Dip Ed Psych.

Marie is a retired organisational psychologist and executive coach. She has extensive consulting experience providing strategic, organisational development, HR and change management advice to a wide range of organisations including corporate, public sector, NFP, and multi-nationals. Her interest has been assisting senior leaders to develop insight, skills and strategies to manage people and services effectively. Previously Marie led several programs in public sector organisations including road safety and aviation. As well Marie held a position as Family Court Counsellor undertaking assessments, counselling and reporting to the Court. Marie has experience as a member of community service based Boards.