PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

Rev Keiron Jones appointed to Professional Standards Board

Keiron was born and raised in Australia, and completed a Bachelor of Arts degree and Diploma in Education in New South Wales. She worked for four years in Oxfordshire UK in education before returning to Australia. She has held the positions of teacher in a number of schools, Head of Year at Scotch College Melbourne, and Deputy Principal at Presbyterian Ladies' College Melbourne. She completed two Master of Education degrees, through Australian Catholic University and the University of Melbourne.

After a considerable period of discernment, Keiron began theological studies and formation studies as an ordination candidate in the Diocese of Melbourne. She completed a Masters of Theological Studies at Trinity College Theological School, University of Divinity, graduating as Vice Chancellor's Scholar in her final year. She was ordained deacon in February 2020 and priest in November 2020. Currently, she is Assistant Curate at St John the Evangelist Anglican Church Toorak Victoria.

Keiron is a member of the Trinity College Theological School Committee.
