

KOOYOORA

---

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS BOARD

The Hon Paul Cronin has been appointed to the Professional Standards Board for the Dioceses of Melbourne and Bendigo.

Paul Cronin has served as a Judge in the Family Court Australia for the past 13 years. The Melbourne role at the Court included being a member of the Chief Justice's executive, and manager of court lists, as well as that of liaison judge with the legal profession. At various times, he sat as a member of the Full Court (or court of appeal) of the Court.

Prior to 2006, Paul practised law as a member of the Victorian Bar from 1998, including the role as the Bar's representative on the Family Law Section of the Law Council of Australia.

Paul has worked as a solicitor in rural regions in the areas of family, criminal and child protection law.