

KOYOORA

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS COMMITTEE

Ann Pratt joins the Professional Standards Committee

Ann Pratt trained as a mental health social worker and family therapist. She has worked in a variety of settings including mental health, community health and DFFS. Ann has specialised in working in child and adolescent mental health and has many years of experience in the field of eating disorders. Working across many health sectors, Ann has contributed to the development of eating disorder services working with various stakeholders, medical services and CYMHS clinicians. Her current role is to support the development of a comprehensive eating disorder service for Latrobe Regional Hospital.